MANDATORY REMOVAL FROM CONTACT WITH OR CONTROL OVER CHILDREN

It is the policy of the Bureau of Indian Affairs that any employee, against whom allegations of child abuse or neglect have been raised, will be immediately placed in a position requiring no contact with or control over children or automatically placed on administrative leave for a period of three (3) work days.

Removing an employee from contact with or control over children will be accomplished by placing the employee in a position that does not have contact with or control over children, if such position exists and work is available. The employee will be informed in writing of the temporary assignment to this position and will be notified the reason for the action is an allegation of child abuse or neglect. Every effort will be made to place the employee in a position on site or in another office within the local commuting area.

If management determines it is in the best interest of the school to place the employee on administrative leave, a letter stating such will be prepared in consultation with the servicing personnel office. The letter will inform the employee of the expected duration of the administrative leave and that action is being taken based on an allegation of child abuse or neglect.

Breakfast and lunch are available to all staff. Current meal charges are $3. Senior citizen school employees, 55 years and over, are provided meals without charge while school is in session.

STUDENT ATTENDANCE

Teachers must maintain a uniform prescribed method of attendance recording in their attendance book. The classroom Teacher Attendance Book is the official record book. Teaching Assistants may record attendance; however, the teacher is ultimately responsible for the accuracy and must sign each page. Attendance procedures are as follows:

1. Attendance will be taken by the classroom teacher/teacher assistant each day (each period for High school, twice a day for elementary)
2. Attendance must be recorded in the attendance book by the Teacher/teacher assistant according to the following sample:

Daily Routine

1. The first day of a student's attendance is denoted by an "E" (enrolled).
2. Record attendance at the beginning of each day / period. Change Absences to Tardy if student arrives late. Office staff will note the time on the student's hall pass. If the student does not have a pass, the teacher is to note this, continue the class and address it with the student before the end of the class period. A student is tardy if they are not in their designated classroom at the sound of the bell.
3. EACH page of your Attendance Book must have your signature. The Teacher's Attendance Book is the ONLY Official Document referred to by the State Auditors when questions arise about attendance. We maintain these books for future auditors, it is important that you understand the necessity of accurate record keeping.
4. DO NOT DELETE OR ERASE a student's name from your Attendance Book. Enter all students enrolled in your class on the first day in alphabetical order, last name first, then as a new student enrolls, enter their name on the appropriate date. If a student is new in your class, you need to pencil their name in the next available number at the bottom of your list.
5. If a student transfers or drops out of school, teachers will be notified in writing by the records manager and given the official date of transfer or drop. Each teacher notes that date in the attendance book and simply draws a single line through the student's name.

Attendance Codes: E=Enrolled (the first day the student is in class)
 P=Present
 A=Absent
 T=Tardy

On the fourth Wednesday count days, which are twice during the school year, it is important that teachers mark each student with 1 of the above codes. The rest of the year, teachers may use 'A' or 'T'. However, on the official count days, all teachers must have uniform record keeping. If you have any questions, please see the principal.

Students are responsible for ALL assigned work regardless of attendance.

What are Educational Records?

FERPA defines “educational records” as “those records, files, documents, and other materials which contain information directly related to a student and are maintained by an education agency or institution.

Ferpa – Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

FERPA is a federal law which governs the disclosure of a student’s “education records.” Generally, FERPA protects the privacy of a student’s education records by restricting their disclosure while ensuring access to those records by the student or the student’s parent or parents.

FERPA vests school parents with certain rights with respect to the educational records of their child and it essentially transfers those rights to the child when he or she turns 18.

FERPA requires that all schools subject to its provisions effectively inform the parents of their students or the students themselves (if they are 18 years of age or older or are attending an institution of post-secondary education) of their rights under FERPA.

FERPA requires that schools which are subject to its provisions give the parents of their students the right to inspect and review the education records of their children and that they establish procedures for granting a parent, within a reasonable time of a request (no more than 45 days after a request has been made), access to the educational records of his or her child. FERPA applies to all natural parents of a child and the child’s legal parent, parents, guardian or guardians unless a court order, state statute or legally binding document specifically provides otherwise.

FERPA requires that school provide parents an opportunity to be heard and a hearing process for challenging the content of a student's education records in order to ensure that the records are not "inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of students, for seeking the "correction or deletion of any such inaccurate, misleading or otherwise inappropriate data contained therein" and for inserting into such records "a written explanation of the parents respecting the content of such records."

FERPA requires that schools give a student's parents advance notice of the release of "directory information" about the student and the opportunity for the parents to "inform" the school that any or all of said information "should not be released without the parent's prior consent."

FERPA requires that schools maintain a record, kept with the education records of each student, which will indicate all individuals, agencies, or organizations which have requested or obtained access to a student's educational records (other than school officials and teachers determined by the school to have had a legitimate educational interest in obtaining such access)

FERPA requires that public schools get the written consent of a student's parents or of the student if he or she is 18 or is attending an institution of post-secondary education, before releasing the student's educational records. FERPA provides that for a consent or release to be valid, it must be in writing and must also specify the records to be released, the reasons for such release, to whom the records are to be released and that the parents were afforded the opportunity to opt for a copy of the records to be released.

FERPA also requires that whenever personal information or personally identifiable information is transferred to a third party, it must be done on the condition that such party will not permit any other party to have access to such information without the written consent of the parents of the student.

If not used, these hours, up to 104 hours, may be sold back at a rate of 70% of the employee's pay rate, or the employee may carry them forward to the next year. However, when selling sick time you must keep at least 40 hours on the books. The Financial Assistant will notify you at the time of sick sell back.

An additional leave of absence may be granted upon approval from the School Administrator or School Principal. Such leave may be granted to include, but not be limited to, being a participant in a tribal member funeral in an official capacity such as honor guard, drummers, singers, casket bearer, or fire keeper.

The School Administrator or Principal or the employee's immediate supervisor may grant leave with or without pay in cases involving an extended family member and the employee attends the funeral. Annual or personal time will need to be used if the time is to be used without pay.

JURY DUTY

When an employee is required to serve on Jury Duty, the employee is entitled to a leave of absence with pay. A Leave Request Form must be filled out. Any/all compensation received for Jury Duty must be reimbursed to the school, excluding travel expenses. If the employee keeps remuneration for duty, time off will be charged to annual leave, or leave without pay.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A leave of absence must be approved by the Board of Education. Request for leave of absence must be submitted in writing to the Principal and the Superintendent, who will then present it to the Board of Education for approval.

MATERNITY LEAVE

Maternity leave will be granted to any employee in accordance with the Family Leave Act (FLA):

- The employee shall notify her immediate supervisor and the Principal of her pregnancy.
- Maternity leave will be considered leave without pay, unless the employee wishes to use sick or annual time, and may be requested at any time after the sixth month of pregnancy, or sooner, in the event of a physician requested leave due to difficult pregnancy. The leave shall not exceed 12 weeks after the end of the pregnancy.
- Employees wishing to exceed 12 weeks must receive approval from the tribal council.
- When an employee desires to return to work from maternity leave, a notice of 14 days is required. The employee shall provide a written physician's statement approving their return to work.
- An employee returning from maternity leave shall be entitled to the same position, in the same location, and at the same rate of pay as prior to maternity leave (contingent upon the continuation of the position).

PATERNITY LEAVE

Requests for paternity leave will be granted to an employee in accordance with the Family Leave Act (FLA). Requests must be in writing, and presented to the Principal and Superintendent, who will, in turn, present it to the Board of Education.

ILLNESS OR OTHER EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES EXTENDING BEYOND ACCRUED SICK/ANNUAL LEAVE

Verified illness during a period of accrued sick leave will not affect the accrual of annual leave. However, should an employee use all sick leave accrued and still have unused annual leave, they will be required to use their annual leave before being granted any leave of absence without pay. In case of a serious health condition or exceptional circumstances and upon appropriate request, an employee may be granted leave without pay to a total of twelve (12) weeks in any twelve-month period, which may be offset by any applicable accrued sick and/or annual leave.

In exceptional circumstances and in the sole discretion of the employer, an extension of unpaid leave for a total of twenty-four (24) or more weeks may be granted. The extension requires Tribal Council approval and the recommendation of the employee's department head and/or board. Leave may be granted for reasons other than serious health conditions as long as the Tribal Council has approved the leave.

All requests for leave without pay which are due to serious health conditions must be made giving reasonable notice to the employer. Requests for sick leave without pay to extend beyond a total sick period of twelve (12) weeks must be made a minimum of ten (10) days in advance of the day on which the unpaid leave begins which shall be the working day immediately following the last paid day of leave or sick time for which annual leave was taken.

Serious health condition means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition which involves in-patient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential care facility; or continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider.

SABBATICAL

To improve the educational qualifications of a staff member, a Sabbatical may be arranged at the discretion of the Administration and the Board of Education. A Sabbatical is without pay, and to be for a duration of six (6) months to a year.
